

Table of Contents

1. The challenge of patients with heart failure: barriers in accessing supportive and palliative care
2. The physiology of patients with heart failure: the origin of symptoms and rationale for treatment
3. Prognostication and disease trajectory
4. Communication in heart failure
5. Diagnosing end stage heart disease
6. Integrating supportive and palliative care
7. Optimising management in end stage heart failure
8. Advance care planning
9. Management of pain
10. Symptoms other than pain
11. Psychological and psychosocial aspects of heart failure
12. Cardiopulmonary resuscitation and device therapy at the end of life
13. Care of the dying
14. Spirituality and religious care
15. Supporting carers