

Table of Contents:

SECTION 1

Medicolegal Practice

The Orthopaedic Surgeon's Viewpoint

The Legal Viewpoint

Recent Developments in the Law and their Effect on Practice

The Orthopaedic Surgeon in Court

SECTION II

Results Following Upper Limb Fractures

The Shoulder

The Humerus

The Elbow

The Forearm

The Wrist

Hand Injuries

SECTION III

Results Following Lower Limb Fractures

The Hip

The Femoral Shaft Fractures

The Knee

The Tibia and Fibula

The Ankle

The Foot, Including Calcaneal Fractures

SECTION IV

Results following Fractures of the Axial Skeleton

The Pelvis

The Cervical Spine

The Thoracolumbar Spine : Assessment

Thoracolumbar Spine Fractures and Soft Tissue Injuries

Traumatic Spinal Cord Injuries

Head Injury

SECTION V

Miscellaneous Topics

Repetitive Strain Injury

Soft Tissue Injuries, Including Burns

Peripheral Nerve Injuries

The Psychological Effects of Trauma

Post-Traumatic Reflex Sympathetic Dystrophy

Recognised Arm Conditions and Work

Radiology in Medicolegal Practice

Vibration White Finger